

Warm Up 1-15-08

When multiplying fractions, why do you think the product (answer) is smaller than each of the multipliers (fractions)? For example,  $\frac{2}{3} \times \frac{1}{2} = \frac{1}{3}$ . Draw a picture if it helps you explain this.