

Greeting

Happy Friday to all. As we come to the end of Student Chest Drive week, I want to say thank you to all of the students who donated money in some way to this worthy cause. I don't know what our total will be but I am proud of the efforts our student leadership group has put in to organize the activities to raise money. Thank you to each student who donated something to help those in need. That is something to be thankful for. Enjoy your weekend.

Masks at Athletic Contests

It has been great to see the basketball season get started. I spent many years coaching basketball at the middle school level and love to watch the games. Just a friendly reminder that currently we still have a requirement to wear masks during the game since we are inside. None of us want to be the mask police, so please make sure that you have your mask on at all times when attending the basketball games in any of our middle school gyms. Your cooperation is very much appreciated.

8th Grade Krispy Kreme Fundraiser

The PTSA is sponsoring a series of fund raisers to make money to support the end of year 8th grade celebration. Currently, there is a Krispy Kreme fundraiser going on. Please note, orders are due Monday, 11/22.

Use this link to order yours this weekend!

Book Fair

Following Thanksgiving Break, Alki will hold a book fair from 11/30-12/3. A flyer with ordering information went home with students today. Students can shop in person during the school day and families can order from the website from home. Thank you for supporting this fun literacy event to benefit our library.

Upcoming Dates

- 11/22 3:05 early release
- 11/23 End of 1st trimester
- 11/24-11/27 No school- Thanksgiving Break
- 11/29 3:05 early release
- 11/29 Start of 2nd trimester
- 11/30-/12/3 Book Fair

Mark Cain

Principal, Alki Middle School

360-313-3200

mark.cain@vansd.org

Working to empower students to create a better world!